

Warsaw Euro-Atlantic Summer Academy 2020 Edition

RULES OF PROCEDURE

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§1

Warsaw Euro-Atlantic Summer Academy (WEASA) is organized jointly by the College of Europe Natolin, the German Marshall Fund of the United States and the Polish-American Freedom Foundation, supported by the Polish-U.S. Fulbright Commission, further on referred to as “the Organizers.”

§2

Participation in WEASA means to follow a complementary, non-degree two-week program of study, carried out at the College of Europe Natolin Campus, located at 84 Nowoursynowska St., Warsaw, Poland.

CHAPTER 2

ELIGIBILITY

§1

1. A person applying for participation in WEASA must meet the following eligibility criteria:
  - citizenship and permanent residence in:
    - one of the Eastern Partnership countries: Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine;
    - or in the Western Balkans region: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, North Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, Kosovo;

- or in Poland;
  - higher education (Master's degree or equivalent);
  - minimum 5 years of professional experience within a field of the WEASA mandate;
  - English language proficiency required to effectively participate in the WEASA program.
2. WEASA is addressed to the individuals who are actively involved in professional and social fields, with significant academic, policy or business achievements. Promising policy analysts, experts, advisers, civil servants, private sector/NGO professionals and journalists, dealing with the European integration, state transformation processes and/or transatlantic cooperation, are in the Organizers' area of interest.
  3. WEASA applicants must be permanent residents of their country of citizenship at time of application
  4. If a person applying for participation in WEASA has more than one country of citizenship, they must hold a passport or other eligible travel document from a country listed in § 1.1. They must use this document in order to arrive to Poland to participate in WEASA.

§2

To apply to WEASA, the Candidate shall comply with the requirements specified in the present Rules of Procedure by submitting the following documents:

- a duly filled in application form (accessible at www.weasa.org ), including a cover letter in English describing Candidate's background and reasons for application
